Dust and ashes oh heaven sent

It hurts sometimes to consider these things (I'd like to think) my pockets are empty and my hands are clean

But remember, you are human

And that's a matter of fact so relax and and consider

Are you really that important

Are you really that small

Are you really doing okay

Or doing nothing at all

Are you a winner or a loser

It doesn't matter in the end

Were you a friend

Dust and ashes oh heaven sent

So what does it matter why do we ask

Most of our lives we'll fill up our time with stupid tasks

So often, we are lost in

One of these recipes

So release yourself, and just see

Are you really that important

Are you really that small

Are you really doing okay

Or doing nothing at all

Are you a winner or a loser

It doesn't matter in the end

Were you a friend

Dust and ashes oh heaven sent
