Wrap your arms around this one and give it a hug. you know that's all we really want it's a gift from above. If we give it some attention maybe it's an extension, that moment we're dreaming of.

We got it right here it's near as the air to my face. It's clear as the vacuum of space. It's dear as a letter, with each word written closer together, trying to find a way to embrace.

Say it again so I can really understand you in my heart and my hand there is a brand new meaning, of this four letter word in the sand draw it and wash it away again.

I stand here in front of you holding on to what I think is true that I am me and you are you and we have got something important to do

We've gotta love with all our heart and our soul and our might and I might just be a light till the day I die that's right, love is a verb and a choice and a right am I right Adonai

Love Adonai your God...
